Defense Counsel For Communists Uses Delay Tactics

Subpoena 50 Witnesses In Attempt To Make American Justice Issue

TRIAL IS IN RECESS UNTIL WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Defense Counsel for 11 U. S. Communist leaders placed some 50 witnesses under subpoena today in an attempt to make American justice the issue of the conspiracy trial.

Having already smashed legal precedent in the first week of the federal court proceedings, the imposing array of legal talent gathered by the Communist leaders planned to keep on the offensive as long as possible.

Call Grand Jurors
Among those subpoenaed are the 23 grand jurors who voted to indict the top leadership of the American Communists for conspiracy to overthrow the government by violence.

Others are understood to be talesmen called for possible jury service at the trial, and federal judges.

In the strange reversal which has given the temporary role of prosecutor, the defense seeks to prove that the federal jury system—especially in New York—is a "rich man's club" which systematically excludes the "poor, the worker, the political and racial minorities."

Will Be Time Consuming
That the attempt will be time-consuming was demonstrated yesterday when defense lawyers took four hours to question four talesmen on matters ranging from their annual incomes to their religious, racial and political ties.

But Federal Judge Harold R. Medina still has in reserve the power to cut off the defense and get to the trial itself at any time. He has reserved action on a prosecution motion to this effect.

In Recess
A panel of 525 prospective jurors has been summoned, and theoretically the defense might call each one, delaying the trial itself for weeks. The case is now in recess until Wednesday to allow one defense lawyer to fly to California for a trial there.

Another apparent defense tactic appeared to be headed for defeat as the first week of proceedings ended. Judge Medina stymied the tactic when he told defense counsel:

"You have been trying to get me out of the case for some time on various grounds and I see no merit in any of them."

The union called a mass meeting for the purpose of asking for strike vote tomorrow.

Pa Newc Observes

Mrs. Charles Kelly, 1230 Huron avenue, reported to Pa Newc this morning that while looking out the window she discovered a fat robin out in the yard. The mildness of the season is bringing the spring harbingers back to this area.

Mrs. William Groucutt of 520 Friendship street has a fine anemone in bloom at the present time. She reports that there are four blooms on it now and four more coming out.

Operators of buses on many routes about the city, especially in the residential section, are having a difficult time pulling their buses to the curb at the bus stops. Unthinking motorists park right on the bus stop leaving no room for the buses to stop properly before discharging passengers. Perhaps repainting of the bus stop signs would help.

John Span, Jr., Is Sentenced

Court Finds Him Guilty Of Murder In Second Degree In Father's Death

TEN TO TWENTY YEARS SENTENCE

John Span, Jr., 32, veteran of the Battle of the Bulge and a prisoner of the Germans for many months, will spend the next 10 years, at least, in the Western penitentiary.

Friday afternoon at 4:25 o'clock he was sentenced in Lawrence county court to 10 to 20 years in the Western penitentiary for the killing of his father on September 19, 1948, in their New Bedford area home.

Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamore set his degree guilty at second degree murder after he had pleaded guilty to the shooting.

Pleaded to Murder
In a drunken rage, young Span shot his father with a sawed-off shotgun in the Span home early on a September Sunday morning. He made no attempt to escape and was found asleep on the floor of the home when the police arrived.

He pleaded guilty to murder several weeks ago and it was then necessary for the court to decide his degree of guilt. Testimony was taken and from this testimony the court found Span was a "compulsive drinker." Evidence of hallucinations were testified to, and also evidence showing Span was nothing more than a casual drinker before the war.

War Effects
His war experiences apparently

Two Youths Held On Charges Of Entering Store

Held By Police For Attempted
Robbery At East Side Store
Early Today

Police Chief Robert D. Hanna today stated he would swear to a charge of burglary against Frank Vanasco, 18, of Franklin avenue, and Samuel Webber, 17, of South Ray street, who allegedly burglarized the Clover Farm store, at East Washington and Junior High streets at 1:50 a. m. today. They were arrested by Policemen Kovach, T. Williams and Criswell.

Police found a sack filled with candy, cigarettes, gum and a canned chicken in the rear of the store. The contents are valued at $46.37.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, who reside next door to the store, early this morning heard the cooler door close and footsteps in the store. While Mr. Bowen went outside and peered through the front window, where he saw a person attempting to hide behind the candy counter, Mrs. Bowen telephoned police headquarters.

A radio call was sent to police cruisers.

Meanwhile one youth, said to be Vanasco, was seen getting into his Ford and driving away. However, he circled back and the police held him.

Then they found the sack in the rear of the building.

Quizzing developed the name of Webber, and he was arrested about three a. m. at his home. According to police, Webber admitted having entered the store about two weeks ago.

It also developed the youths had a key which fitted the door to the store. They later threw the key away, they told police.

SECRETARY OF STATE WORKS ON PROBLEMS

herited a number of problems on which he may have to make snap decisions.

Topmost of these was China. The United States must soon decide whether it will support a policy of resisting communism there or write off the entire southeast Asia area.

The matter was expected soon to become a major issue in the United States.

Responsible sources said that American interests, with heavy investments in China, might seek to promote T. V. Soong as the new head of the Chinese nationalist government.

Soong is brother of Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, Mme. Sun Yat-sen and Mme. H. H. Sung, China's wartime finance minister. Soong himself was the foreign minister of his country during the war and spent much of his time in Washington, where he has a residence.

Other problems confronting Acheson are:

1. Recent moves by the Kremlin heralded as indicating a desire to make peace in the cold war with the west.

2. Giving aid to underdeveloped areas—specifically mentioned by President Truman in his inaugural address. This would be of particular importance in the middle east where the development of the Arab states might do much to offset ill feeling created by the Holy Land warfare.

3. Arriving at some decision on Latin-America where resentment is being engendered by the failure of the United States to give the economic aid promised after the war.

NEGOTIATIONS ON PEACE ARE ASKED BY NATIONALISTS

China to form a "people's self-defense army."

Named As Head

Shao Li-Tze, aging Kuomintang (Nationalist party) liberal who has spearheaded the move for peace, was named to head the peace delegation.

He will be accompanied by Chang Chih-Chung, Huang Shao-Sung, Peng Chao-Hsien and Chung Tien-Hsin.

New acting president Li Tsung-Jen launched his move for peace little more than 24 hours after Chiang Kai-shek's dramatic announcement that he was "retiring."

Reuters reported that Communists are already taking over the great North China city of Peiping. The news agency, in a Nanking dispatch said that the Nationalist commander in Peiping, Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, had resigned.

Cabinet May Resign

At the same time, a semi-official source said Premier Sun Fo and his entire cabinet will resign from office despite Li's plea to "hold on and assist him in passing this critical juncture."

Peiping dispatches reaching Nanking said Communist siege forces which have held Peiping in a ring of steel for weeks withdrew 30 Li (about 10 miles) from the city's ancient walls to permit government troops to pull out.

The action was believed to be the result of peace conferences held last week by a Peiping peace mission which crossed Communist lines.

The Nationalist sixteenth army group and the fourth cavalry division started their withdrawal this morning. Reports reaching Nanking said these forces will concentrate at several points near Peiping to be reorganized into a "people's self defense army."

Reports reaching Nanking did not indicate whether the organization was to be carried on under the auspices of the victorious Communists.

Gen. Hsu Yung-Chang, Chiang's most trusted advisor, was reported to have reached Peiping yesterday to give instructions for the withdrawal to North China commander Gu Tso-Yi.

The same report said that Fu will resign in the near future and that Communist troops will enter the city tomorrow.

Chiang's flight from Communist-threatened Nanking to his ancestral home in Fenghua and his statement that hostilities may be brought to an end left his successor with the difficult job of negotiating a peace with the Communists who demand what amounts to unconditional surrender.

SIXTY FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

THE PAST IN REVIEW

Let's pause for a moment to consider—this is the 61st year that this Association has presented an annual report to its Savers and Investors—Sixty-one years is a long time. The men who pioneered the original effort are all gone now, and only a meager few of the early shareholders are still alive, but their children and their children's children and their friends are the present Savers, Investors and Borrowers in the First Federal.

Little did these pioneer organizers realize that the foundation which they built so well, using the corner stones of SAFETY, SERVICE and FAIR DEALING plus a CONSERVATIVE LENDING policy, would one day support not only the OLDEST but the LARGEST Savings and Loan Association in Lawrence County and that it would also be one of the leaders in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

HISTORICAL RECORD OF FACTS

Let us check the record briefly. . . In all these 61 years no Saver or Investor has ever lost a dollar of his savings in this Association. . . Regularly each year, in good times and depression, peace and war, dividends have been paid and credited to each Saver's and Investor's account, totaling the amazing sum of more than $1,750,000.00.

This Association has also contributed largely toward making this a community of debt-free home owners. Year after year, in an ever increasing number, the FIRST FEDERAL has made it possible for worthy folks to buy or build their own homes. These homes have been acquired by individual initiative, thrift and saving. These folks have been old-fashioned Americans. They have not asked for or wanted government subsidy or public housing. Many of them have built at least a part of their houses with their own hands. Thus, by their contribution of toil and sweat, together with a planned saving program to liquidate the mortgage, First Federal's Borrowers through the years have become real home-owners and this community's most substantial citizens and taxpayers. In these homes their children have been reared. Their future and education were provided for with dollars saved in the First Federal. Life for these folks has been good, and the First Federal is proud to have had a part in their success. The First Federal also has an outstanding record of cooperation in connection with the G. I. home loan program. It was one of the first Savings and Loan Associations in Pennsylvania to accept and make Veterans' home loans. Since the passage of the Act we have assisted approximately 750 Veterans to secure their own homes. Yes, as the years have rolled by, this Association has made home loans to citizens of this community totaling over $15,000,000.00.

PROGRESS IN 1948

Now just a word about the financial statement shown above. In 1948 new and old Savers increased their savings by a net of $733,044.94, but what pleased us most was that 1831 new persons joined the First Federal family of savers. In addition, over 3300 others have embarked on the highway of thrift for a purpose by enrolling in the First Federal's Christmas Club.

It was also our proud privilege last year to welcome to this institution a new group of almost 500 boys and girls, our "School Savers," who are learning the ways of thrift and saving each week in several of our public schools.

Dividends paid and credited to Savers' and Investors' accounts for the year amounted to $127,745.97. Reserve allocations were $88,435.27.

Our conservative lending policy has of necessity curtailed our new loan volume in the inflated real estate market through which we have been passing. This volume was also decreased by reason of the fact that early in 1948 we reached what we felt was our full quota of G. I. loans under present regulations. However, the total advanced for new home loans in 1948 amounted to $1,108,800.00.

YOUR SAVINGS INSTITUTION

Savers and Investors tell us that when they select a financial institution in which to accumulate their savings backlog or invest their surplus dollars there are four major factors which they consider, and we list them in what they say is the order of their importance.

Number I—SAFETY

First Federal's careful, conservative LENDING POLICY is your first assurance of safety, plus an additional safeguard of the FULL INSURANCE OF EACH INDIVIDUAL SAVER'S OR INVESTOR'S ACCOUNT UP TO $5,000.00 BY THE FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION, AN AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Number II—AVAILABILITY

First Federal makes it a practice to waive notice of withdrawal and is paying Savers and Investors without a waiting period.

In order to provide this quick service for our members, it is a long-standing policy of the management to maintain a large percentage of the Association's assets in cash and short term government bonds. In addition, a substantial part of the Association's credit line with our Federal Home Loan Bank System is always kept open.

However, as a protection to you, the law provides that all financial institutions accepting savings have the privilege of requiring a notice for the withdrawal of savings.

Number III—CONVENIENCE

First Federal is conveniently located at 25 North Mill Street, just a step from the center of the City. Hours are from 9 to 3 Monday through Friday and 9 to 12 on Saturday.

For your added convenience, we have recently installed a Round the Clock Savings and Loan Payment Service. . . Our Night Teller, located on the front of the building, accepts additions to your accounts at any time of the day or night.

Number IV—EARNINGS

Dividends are paid and credited semi-annually on all the savings in your account at the end of each period. The First Federal's dividend policy has always been liberal, not always the highest obtainable, but conservative and consistent with safe operation, keeping in mind ample reserve allocations to provide stable dividends during depression years.

This Association also specializes in home loans designed to make home ownership easy. We can provide you with our regular monthly interest reduction loan that has always been popular. In addition, the Federal Housing Administration has approved this association for F. H. A. lending, including home mortgage loans and modernization and improvement loans.

A survey of new accounts this last year indicates that a large percentage of new Savers and Borrowers came to the First Federal because of the recommendation of one of our present shareholders. We acknowledge and are extremely grateful for this kind of cooperation.

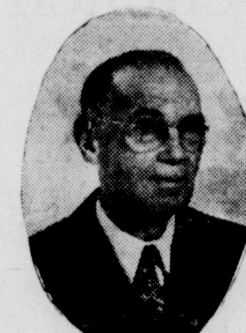

The Officers, Directors and Employees, who are your neighbors and friends, invite you to make First Federal your thrift and home-financing institution, and all of us pledge ourselves to serve you and care for your savings and home-financing needs to the best of our ability.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The master-minding editorialists of Izvestia and Pravda faced the task of a lifetime today in dealing with the inaugural address of President Truman which Soviet tradition demands must be labeled as "imperialist and warmongering".

Against the torrent of praise that flowed in upon Mr. Truman's first address as elected holder of his high office one paramount fact emerged.

This was the chief executive's dexterity in cutting the ground from any justified foreign criticism. He quite obviously had taken into consideration every weapon the communists could conceivably use against him and spiked each and every gun before it could be fired.

Moscow Blasts Anticipated
It seemed inevitable then that the anticipated Moscow blasts will be directed against principles rather than definite items on the president's agenda for the attainment and maintenance of a permanent peace.

The communist newspaper can assail Mr. Truman's support of the north Atlantic security pact, which incidentally was a far stronger endorsement than most foreign observers had expected.

They can charge again that American dollars are being used to "enslave" Europe under the Marshall plan.

They can continue their ceaseless but seemingly futile efforts to scuttle the United Nations.

But it will take linguistic juggling indeed to present the president's appraisal of democracy versus communism in any manner palatable to the spoon-fed readers of the Soviet press.

Position Difficult
The position of Soviet editorialists is becoming increasingly difficult due to the "Voice of America" broadcasts.

These may not circulate extensively in the Soviet Union itself, because of the scant number of radio sets available to the ordinary population.

But the satellite states have not suffered in this regard and forward looking nations like Czechoslovakia were before her absorption by the Kremlin pride themselves on material possessions ranking with the best of the western world.

President Truman touched the Soviet position.

heart of the problem with his blistering denunciation of police state methods and the rule of force through fear. Intentionally or otherwise, he duplicated the tactics of his predecessor, the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, who attempted to reach the German people over the head of Adolf Hitler and his entourage.

Failed In Effort
Mr. Roosevelt failed in his efforts to wean the Germans away from a love for war and a desire for conquest.

It is not impossible that the new president will achieve a greater measure of success.

Students of modern political developments seem agreed that the Russian people themselves do not want war and it is a matter of record that Russia is the one nation with which the United States never has been in armed conflict.

They feel also that the Kremlin itself is not unanimously committed to the doctrine of aggression—that there truly is a division of opinion such as President Truman mentioned in a pre-inaugural speech a few weeks ago.

What effect his major address may have upon the people of Russia as a whole depends in large measure upon the methods of presentation drafted by the Kremlin's editorial staff.

A fair and unbiased approach obviously is too much to hope for. But the president appears to have left new loopholes for ridicule or legitimate criticism. With the result that to belittle and besmirch the ideals he expounded confronts the propagandists of Moscow with a job that few journalists will envy.

Looking At Life
By ERICH BRANDEIS
I am peeved.

Not a very sensational opening for a column, I admit, but see where I wouldn't be peeved, too, under the same circumstances.

You remember the sensational case of Faye Emerson Roosevelt a couple of weeks ago, when she nicked herself accidentally with a razor blade, don't you?

Well, for that little "accidental" nick, she got pages of publicity, front page publicity, at that.

She got her picture in the papers, all over a lot of papers, dancing with her husband, looking lovingly into his eyes; another one with his arm around her waist, and many, many more.

It certainly was wonderful, a million dollars worth of publicity for nothing.

Now take the case of my wife. Here she is going around with two of her fingers bandaged up. (She burnt one of them on the hot stove and cut the other one while slicing bread.)

She can't even get her gloves on. So every policeman, every sheriff, every district attorney can plainly see the fix she is in.

Is she accused of having tried to commit suicide?

Does the District Attorney summon me to his office to see whether I might possibly be prosecuted for attempted murder?

Why, I just imagine. The editor of our little weekly, who knows my wife, met her only this morning.

He looked at her bandaged hand. "Hurt yourself?" he asked, and walked on.

Nobody seems to pay the slightest attention to my wife's injury. The only fellow who paid the slightest attention to it was a friend of ours who asked facetiously: "Trying to do a Faye Emerson Roosevelt, eh?"

And that fellow, being a comic artist, doesn't count.

When Elliott Roosevelt was interviewed by a couple of dozen reporters up in Poughkeepsie, after the case had been dismissed, he told them he hoped the dismissal would be given as "equally big headlines" as what he termed the "accident."

(The story of the dismissal appeared on page 15, column 3, with an itty-bitsy one-column head.)

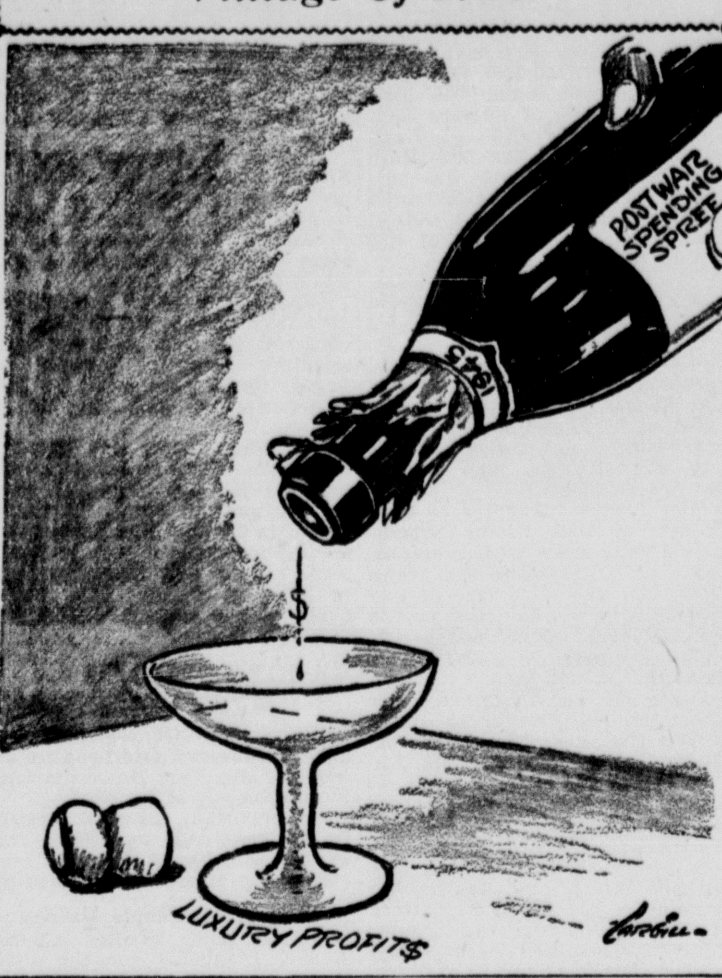

My wife says she can understand why that razor-blade case got so much publicity in the first place.

Anybody knows, she says, how the Roosevelt hate publicity and that, with whistles, bells, gongs and sirens, they have tried to keep out of the public eye ever since she remembers.

I wonder whether she's kidding me.

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Looking Beyond Marshall Plan
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—One of the earlier drafts of President Truman's inaugural address contained a significant sentence later struck out. While the reasons for cutting it out were valid, the President's intention might have been clearer if it had been left in.

In point No. 4 of his outline of the goals of American foreign policy the President proposed that American capital and labor combine to make available to other nations the benefits of American industrial organization. Thereby, living standards around the world would be raised.

Capital, he suggested in his address, should be advanced on the principal that benefits must flow mutually to the American investor and to the people of the country where the money is invested. This, as the President said, is a repudiation of the "old imperialism—exploitation or foreign profit."

The sentence deleted from that part of the message, in effect, declared: Where Marshall Plan Left Off

"This proposal is intended to take up where the Marshall Plan leaves off."

One reason the blue pencil crossed this out was because the President did not want to leave the impression that he was talking only about the Marshall Plan countries. He was extending the Truman fair deal not merely to Western Europe but to the world.

There was also the fear that such a reference to the Marshall Plan might be misunderstood at a time when Economic Co-Operation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman and his assistants are about to present to Congress a request for $4,300,000,000 for the second year of operation. The most careful and detailed study is going into the presentation Mr. Hoffman will make.

The first reports submitted by individual Marshall Plan countries covering their position in the second year of the aid program showed far too little co-ordination. Thus, three or four countries might show that each was planning to absorb the entire market for textiles of, say, the Argentine. Each was planning to export all its luxury goods and import nothing but necessities.

Strenuous Co-Ordination Effort
Mr. Hoffman and his staff are making a strenuous effort to get more co-ordination. In all his talks with heads of state and cabinet ministers during his recent visit to Europe, the boss of ECA stressed the urgent necessity for the Europeans themselves, through their own organization, to assume greater responsibility. Mr. Hoffman is confident this will come.

But even if there is 100 per cent co-operation, there still will be a deficit in Western Europe in 1952 when the Marshall Plan is to end. The brilliant young French economist, Robert Marjolin, recently estimated the balance-of-payments deficit in '52 at $3,000,000,000.

Yet, the American people were sold, and may be oversold, on the idea that a four-year plan or a five-year plan would repair all the ravages of war in stricken Europe and start the western countries out on an independent, self-sustaining basis. The American people would be most reluctant to believe that the system of loans and grants should be extended beyond 1952. This is clearly understood in the White House, and point No. 4 in the President's message was an effort to look beyond that deadline.

The truth is that it was not the war alone that brought Europe to its present plight. The economic decline can be traced back at least 50 years.

Productivity Stale
European productivity remained more or less static in the years that American industry was developing the technology that has turned out a torrent of goods that no other country could produce as cheaply. Take electric power as an example. The American worker has from two to three times as many power units to help him do his work as does the average European worker. And those power units are used far more efficiently than they are in Europe.

That is the background for point No. 4. The President was looking ahead for ways and means of sharing the technology and sharing the benefits of the American system to the advantage of borrower and lender.

It is not too early to work toward such a goal. Above all, it is not too early to let people know that a neat tidying up cannot be done in five years. It is a stubborn, long-term trend that this country is combating with the Marshall Plan as a first and emergency measure. Wisely and with foresight the President has now looked beyond this emergency step.

They Say
WASHINGTON—President Truman: "I believe that those countries that now oppose us will abandon their delusions and join with the free nations of the world in a just settlement of international differences."

WASHINGTON—Rep. Smith (R) Wis.: "The president certainly covered a lot of ground. But in the international field, I certainly agree with what he said about the need for peace."

WASHINGTON—Rep. Eaton (R) N. J.: "What particularly pleased me was the president's clear understanding of communism and his announcement that we do not propose to permit our own freedom or that of other people to be ruthlessly destroyed by communism in any way."

LAKE SUCCESS—Warren R. Austin, American chief delegate to the U. N.: "I believe that the United States policy toward the United Nations will be strengthened under the new secretary of state, Dean Acheson."

Soviet "Peace Offensive"

Washington, Jan. 22
IN Washington, there is very little difference in the view now taken of Russia. No one, of course, wants war; but, in and out of official circles, almost every man sufficiently informed and experienced to have a worth-while judgment is convinced the Russian leaders do not want to co-operate in achieving world peace; that they do not want to make the United Nations an effective instrument but to destroy its usefulness.

THEY are further convinced that these men are not men of good will nor good faith; that they cannot be relied upon to live up to any agreement nor tried to tell the truth; that they are inherently hostile to the capitalist countries—particularly the United States—and their real objective is to undermine them by promoting economic chaos. For out of chaos comes Communism. Though all those who hold this view cannot proclaim it publicly, nevertheless it is an accurate reflection of opinion. The record of the last three years seems fully to sustain every conclusion herein made.

THERE is almost no dissent. The only difference is in the length of time it took different individuals to reach them. Some, like Mr. William C. Bullitt, Ambassador to Russia from 1933 to 1936—and an exceedingly friendly one—reached them ten years ago. In 1946 he set them forth in a book. Others, like Mr. B. M. Baruch, reached them after many months of patient negotiation on the vital matter of atomic energy control, during which he exhausted every avenue of conciliation, quit only when convinced of the complete futility of further effort.

MANY others, starting out with hope that it was only necessary to understand and sympathize with the Russians in order to secure results long ago abandoned that idea. Even Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is discouraged and irritated. A week ago at the State Department, among other things, she declared that "I don't think I will ever compromise with them again—even on words. The Soviets look on this as evidence of weakness rather than a gesture of good will." Ex-Senator Warren Austin, of Vermont, who, before his illness, was our chief representative in the United Nations and started out with the utmost optimism concerning Russian co-operation, ended his service in a state of pessimism on that score.

SO has nearly every other optimist. Gradually, almost without exception, they have come to believe the Russians do not intend to co-operate, negotiate or agree. All they intend is to delay, obstruct, exasperate, and irritate, always adding vastly to the cost, the confusion, the futility and frustration of our attempt to promote permanent peace and individual liberty throughout the world. Perhaps if we had grasped these facts right after the Russians began to nullify the United Nations with their silly vetoes we might have saved vital time, much labor and money. Perhaps, then, we might have avoided the sucker role for three years. Certainly, if we had taken the advice of Mr. Churchill, given here more than two years ago, we at least would have saved two years, much stress, strain and expense—and been in much better position.

AS things stand today, thoughtful men here are almost unanimous in this view, which explains why the recently reported "peace offensive" of the Soviets has met with so cold and cynical a reception. For one thing, while the French Communists, invariably inspired by their Moscow masters, vigorously insist that peace between East and West is possible; that war is not inevitable and peaceful existence of "socialism" and "capitalism," side by side, is not illogical; that peace, not war, is the best ally of "socialism" simultaneously the Moscow Pravda continues to call on Communists everywhere to "develop" a "burning hatred of capitalism and all aspects of bourgeois society."

Pravda, official organ of the Cominform, continues to declare that America and Britain are the centers of world reaction, that their capitalism is tottering to its inevitable downfall and that this will be followed by the Communist conquest.

THUS, it is impossible to regard this "peace offensive" as anything but the usual Communist "double talk." The Soviet leaders appear to be pursuing a planned zigzag course, "retreating," as the New York Times says, "for a breathing space in preparation for a new attack."

Reviewing the record, the only possible way of treating their latest move is with complete skepticism. It would be absurd to warm up to them until they speak not in words or propaganda but in acts calculated to restore confidence in Soviet good faith. Such acts, for example, would be an abandonment of the Berlin blockade and a cessation of the virulent anti-American propaganda with which the Soviets have been trying to poison the world against us. Let them give those evidences of good faith and they would not have to complain about lack of warmth in our response. We have every reason to be eager for better relations with Russia; but, without deeds, their words are worthless and we would be fools to turn optimists again.

Hints On Etiquette
If you answer the phone at your home and some member of your household other than yourself is asked for, don't ask who is calling. Call the person to the phone, unless he or she asks you to find out who is calling.

JOBS UPON A TIME
HILLARY BROOKE, motion picture actress, thought she wanted to be a dictator, but failed to take into consideration her blond beauty and gift of mimicry. Hillary was born on Long Island and became a photographer's model, then went on the New York stage in "Set to Music" and "Transatlantic Rhythm". Her debut in Hollywood came in 1938. Because of her unusual name, Hillary often gets fan mail addressed to "Mr."

TWO BUDGET MAKERS
By coincidence it happens that about this time of the year John Citizen is confronted with the same sort of job as the President of the United States—that of making up his budget. John, like Uncle Sam, faces the problem of high prices. It costs more to operate a home, hold a farm or a business when money is cheap, just as it costs more to operate a government. So Mr. Citizen has to adjust his expenses to meet the costs.

The first thing he does, if gifted with what used to be called American prudence, is to check over and see what he can do without. If he has been spending any great amount for unnecessary or luxuries, he starts pruning on these. If the cost of shoes and clothes and coal and gasoline and food have risen, he must do some cold calculating on just where and how much he can cut down. Maybe fewer purchases at lower prices.

There is also the matter of allowances for the youngsters, outlays for pleasure and travel and amusements. Then comes the question of gifts. No sound-minded budget maker is going deliberately to bankrupt himself in order to give money and things away. So the whittling starts along this line as a matter of self-protection.

Practical Necessity
Another matter that enters into the situation is the practical necessity of working a little harder and a little longer, in order to purchase (Continued on Page Seven)

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime: BY H. T. WEBSTER

THAT RIVER OF AIR

For weeks the nation has been fascinated by the weather reports, and by the weather. The East has had one long autumn, with spring-like interludes to make things still more pleasant, while the western half of the country has been having a hard winter.

There have been blizzards in the West, sleet storms in the Southwest, and southern California has been hit by unprecedented cold waves.

Meteorologists can explain why it is that the nation's weather has been snafued ever since last autumn. It seems that the river of air that flows over the country from west to east, at altitudes of from 20,000 to 40,000 feet, hasn't been following its normal course.

It's out of its bed, so to speak, and the result is that westerly winds have been breaking it up and scattering its cold where it doesn't normally go. At the same time, warm winds have been permitted to invade territory usually closed to them.

But to explain it is not to excuse it. Knowing why they have lost 25 per cent of their citrus crop is no consolation to Californians. It probably doesn't increase easterners' contentment with the weather to understand the reason for the southern climate they have been enjoying. The fact remains that everybody has to take what comes and like it.

And the pattern may change completely overnight.

EVA'S GESTURE

Its doorstep full of bounty, but its face very red, describes the state of the Children's Aid Society of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Juan D. Peron, better known, perhaps, as blonde and dynamic Eva Duarte Peron, is sending the society clothing enough to outfit 600 needy children in this country.

The chain of circumstances goes something like this: The head of the society, a Mrs. Ralph Vawters, tapped the Argentine embassy for a "donation" some months ago. She says this is a common procedure, and she only wanted $5 or $10. A secretary in the embassy asked her to submit the request in writing. She did and forgot about it.

Mrs. Vawters has been notified that a small mountain of clothing is en route. She is embarrassed. So are officials of the State Department, who, in addition to feeling that it is more blessed to give than to receive, are on the lookout for a joker in the pack.

The department has never been over-courteous with either Mrs. Peron or her husband, so this gift is being viewed in the light of its effect abroad. Functionaries of the department think the Russians might make political hay of the obvious implication that America cannot take care of its own.

But it would be foolish to deny that there are 600 tots who could use the clothes. Eva should be heartily thanked for the gift. The State Department, if it chooses, should feel perfectly free to peer into the gift horse's mouth. In a nice way, of course.

SOME PLAIN TALK

In all the recent talk about how many good friends we have in the Kremlin in Russia—who would like to co-operate with us if they dared—and with the Russian appearers again getting more active in the United States, it is refreshing to read some straight-from-the-shoulder remarks on the real aims of Russia by an American who has been in Europe in an official and investigative way and knows what he is talking about.

The man referred to is Paul G. Hoffman, head of the ERP, who has recently returned from a surveying trip in Europe and Asia. Mr. Hoffman declares that in the present world conflict between communism and Western civilization the American people do not have a clear enough picture of what is going on. While many of us seem to believe, he added, that the Kremlin is merely trying to spread the ideology of communism over the world, what it is trying to do is something far different. He recently declared: "What you get from talking to people around the world is that the Russian Fifth Column is spreading poison, hatred, just plain cussedness; stirring up chaos and confusion. That isn't what the good people thought communism was. They thought it was sweet and lovely, alight with brotherhood. There is nothing of that in this Russian plan, and in my opinion that is only a secondary objective. They (the Kremlin) use their own communistic trappings for the purpose of winning for themselves a power position in these countries. That is the real thing they are after—power."

"Hitler was a baby compared with this gang. He didn't know what it was all about. He was talking and they were acting. They don't say too much about all this, but believe me, when you see the countries that they have taken over and when you see what they have done in China you realize what a menace this power drive is."

"Let's not talk about it as the spread of communism. Let's talk about it for what it is—an attempt by the gang in the Politburo to take over the world."

If there are any innocent ones who still believe the Communists are trying to promote "brotherhood" the world over, it is high time they awaken. They are out to subdue the world under the iron heel of the Politburo.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

SPEED DRILL WON'S HELP THE CHILD

From what I can gather the nation over, the practice of having children work against the watch at school has greatly waned in recent years. Judging from the letters I receive, some children in the grades are still tortured with stop-watch drills and tests. The mother of a fourth grade child writes, for example: "My daughter who got B's and A's in arithmetic last year got a D on her recent report card. Upon investigation I have discovered that all their tests which they are graded on are speed tests. Trying to be accurate she can't seem to finish."

"The teacher has the children compete two by two at the board with arithmetic problems until all are eliminated but one. Then the teacher races this last child and ticks him completely. Quite a victory for a teacher who has been teaching over 30 years! When I spoke to this teacher of your opinion she said this is the only way a teacher can prove the child knows what he should have learned."

Speed Drills
In answering this mother I expressed regret that those children must be tortured by silly speed drills, but doubt about the advisability of halting my opinion to the teacher. The mother should have been more tactful. Any parent who is distressed that her child must be tortured by such speed drills had better not criticize the teacher to her face or to her children behind the teacher's back. A better way is to help the child at home to memorize the basic addition, subtraction and multiplication facts so as to know them without counting or hesitating. A good way for a child to memorize them is to study a few of these facts on cards, one fact to a card, putting emphasis on accuracy.

When the child knows all these facts well he is the better armed for victory under speed pressure at school. Any parent has the multiplication facts and can make cards of each, preferably out of the 100 addition and 100 subtraction facts. For her convenience I have listed these two groups of number facts in random order in my special bulletin, "Home Helps in Arithmetic" (to be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.). Surely I shall do all I can to persuade teachers to quit speed drills and tests.

Reading Speed
Many teachers still greatly emphasize speed of reading. While some poor readers in the upper grades and high school do seem to improve at reading by working against the watch many others are greatly hindered by such emphasis. If the learner were to hold the watch on himself the results would be far better, but when the teacher does "time" the slow reader, especially as he sees some other students far faster than he is, may feel hopeless.

From Me To You

By MESEELL

No one in Lawrence County should have to die for lack of blood. We have made a good beginning toward this goal by the establishment here of a blood donor program to make blood available for medical use in civilian practice.

All of us are familiar with the wartime Red Cross program to supply the vital life-giving fluid which saved the lives of countless combat-wounded American fighting men and many of us have given blood to it. Men lived because plasma and blood was given to them quickly, even while bullets whined and shells exploded around them.

Research in the use of human blood has brought great advances. Human blood is saving the lives of many who meet with accidents or are burned. It is giving life to many suffering from anemia; it is restoring health to those who lose blood in surgical operations and at childbirth.

The Lawrence County Medical Society and the Lawrence County Red Cross chapter are cooperating in a civilian blood donor program. Now, in addition to plasma already released by the military for civilian use, a steady flow of life saving blood will go through the Red Cross for those needing whole blood transfusions and, in the future, for the preparation of plasma. This blood will be furnished without charge to any patient. However, there may be the customary charge by the hospital and the professional fee of the physician.

No one in Lawrence County should have to die for lack of blood... if each one of us does his share, makes his donation. This is truly a challenging opportunity.

more or do a bigger business. It may be that some hired help will have to be dispensed with, while the family makes up the loss by a little more personal effort.

Mrs. Citizen, of course, is equally concerned about holding down the family expenses to fit the family income. She figures savings here and there and tries to stretch her household dollar to the limit. She doesn't encourage any show-off purchases or handouts to thriftless relatives.

And like her husband, Mrs. Citizen doesn't propose to go running to the bank to borrow money for foolish experimenting; good credit and good self-respect are solid family assets that must not be jeopardized.

John Citizen, as his name implies, is only a private citizen and not a government. But his solid sense and self-restraint might come in handy in Washington.

City Officials Nominated For Scout Week Here

New Castle District Scouts To Take Over City Hall February 7

New Castle District Boy Scouts started their "Adventure in Citizenship" last night in the scout office by nominating John Brinton Jr. and Frank Conner to the ballot as mayor of New Castle. Elections to be held next week at the troop meetings will decide which Scout is to take over the position of mayor on February 7, second day of Boy Scout Week.

Scouts nominated for the positions of councilmen are: Harvey Hickey, Myron Brooks, Jennings Grabe, Harry Wright, Jim Peacock, Richard Black, Duane Farrington, and Donald Bacon.

Candidates for city treasurer are Anthony Phillips and Bruce Walrath and for city comptroller, Willie Peacock and John Russo.

Approximately 35 Scouts attended the convention and plenty of interest was shown by the delegates in their choice for the various city offices.

Must Have Card

All scouts of the district are warned that they must have their "registration card" with them at their regular scout meeting during the week of January 24 to 28 in order to vote in the city elections.

In this manner, all scouts can participate in "Adventure in Citizenship."

"Adventure—That's Scouting!" is the theme for this year's Boy Scout Week which will be from February 6-12. The New Castle district scouts have planned twelve dinners, window exhibits, Scout Sunday observances, and citizenship as their part in the Adventure of Scouting.

GIT, GRIT AND GUMPTION

An engine may be in good condition and all ready to go. If it is not supplied with oil, fuel and water it will not be of much use.

The human body needs the right kind of fuel too. Food is used by the body to make energy.

Coal is burned in an engine so that it will do some work. Food is burned in the body in much the same way.

The body needs enough food of the right kind in order to do good work. Children need more food in proportion to their size than adults do. They need material for growth as well as energy.

Old people and children need a good supply of protein. Eggs and milk and meat and cheese are good sources of protein.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Richard Widmark thinks that pitching screen woo is the most "irritating" chore an honest leading man can draw.

Even when the party of the second part is a curvaceous creature by the name of Linda Darnell.

In Widmark's latest movie, "Slattery's Hurricane," he and Miss Darnell engage in some high-calorie smooching. The sizzling scenes took seven hours to film and all that time the couple parked on a horse-hair stuffed couch.

Not Very Comfortable
If you ever have reposed upon a horse-hair-stuffed couch you know the chunk of furniture has an extremely annoying habit of jabbing needle-like into the back of your lap.

Horsehair acts up in precisely the same manner on a movie set. Little can be done about the queer quirk because horsehair is used advisedly. Instead of foam rubber or billyow down.

Charlie Clarke, 20th Century-Fox cinematographer, explained that most love sequences are shot in extreme close-up—mainly for the purpose of giving the cash customers their money's worth.

With the camera practically probing the oral cavities of the principals, it becomes necessary for the screen lovers not to move around too much and vanish from the lens range.

Horsehair solves this problem. It gives less than a broke miser, no matter what contortions take place on its surface.

In "Slattery's Hurricane" Widmark always comes in closest contact with the divan, Miss Darnell, perched in his lap, is well barricaded from the horsehair stuffing. Widmark clasped Miss Darnell to him as tightly as the censoring Johnston office would permit and lamented:

"Few people realize what hardships an actor has to undergo for his art."

SOME SCRAP
Movie-goers in a few weeks will gaze at a feminine screen fight that will top any brawl since the hair-pulling fracas of "The Women."

Maureen O'Hara and Gloria Grahame in "A Woman's Secret," stage a slugfest over a gun that lasts four minutes on the screen—which means the battle took three full days to film.

It's the wickedest "cat fight" in many years, with the girls ripping each other's clothes, wrecking a room and pulling tresses out by the roots.

The scene was so rugged that when it finally wound up, Gloria had to take three days off from work to recover from injuries.

Pittsburgh Girl Who Married In Moscow, Mother

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Relatives in Pittsburgh revealed today that 34-year-old Annabelle Bucar, who quit her post in the American embassy in Moscow after marrying a Russian opera singer, is the mother of a baby boy.

The relatives said they had talked with the attractive woman, whose love affair with Konstantin Lapshin caused something of an international fuss by telephone. The boy was born last June.

The former embassy information clerk is the oldest of 11 children of Ivan Bucar, well-to-do landowner of nearby Jefferson township.

Annabelle married Lapshin in Moscow 13 months before she quit her embassy job last February 27. At the time of her resignation Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith declared the blonde clerk had been "very remiss" in not informing the embassy of her marriage.

State department regulations require an immediate resignation after such a marriage. However, she was permitted to keep her American passport.

In her resignation letter, she attacked America's policies and "reactionary individuals". Annabelle was born in nearby Trafford, attended the University of Pittsburgh for four years and then went to work for the war department in New York in 1943.

Truman's Inaugural Foreign Development Plan Not Held As "Must"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Democratic leaders in congress declared today they do not regard President Truman's inaugural foreign development program as a legislative "must" intended for action this year.

Senate Majority Leader Lucas (D) Ill., said he thought Mr. Truman's proposal for extending American "know-how" and capital investment to undeveloped countries is a "fine, long-range program".

Republican policy makers were less enthusiastic. Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, declared in a radio broadcast he felt the president was attempting to end the bi-partisan foreign policy, and "over-promising" foreign aid. Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., GOP foreign policy chief said there was nothing new in Mr. Truman's program.

Sen. George (D) Ga., chairman of the senate finance committee, joined Lucas in asserting that he did not believe the president intended his inaugural day recommendation as something he expected to be carried out immediately.

George said this country "might well have a more liberal policy toward investments abroad" in situations abroad.

in situations aiding America's own economy. He said he referred to adjustments in tax laws. He added:

"But I wouldn't underwrite loans anywhere in the world and I don't suppose the president means that. As to his proposal to extend our technical know-how abroad—that's all right."

"I'm not sure what he means entirely, because of lack of details, but I don't think the president was laying down a legislative program. I believe it was more a statement of attitudes."

Fate Of Pilot In Plane Crash Is Not Yet Known

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(INS)—A single-engine Navy Corsair fighter plane crashed in a swamp and burned today in the "bay area" six miles east of Jones Beach, Long Island.

Coast Guard headquarters in New York said that the fate of the pilot is unknown, but that the fire burned itself out shortly after noon (EST).

The pilot of a Navy PBY patrol plane, dispatched from Floyd Bennett Field, Brooklyn, flew over the area and noticed a parachute near the plane. He reported the Corsair, no sign of the pilot of the Corsair. The Coast Guard said that the crash scene was inland from the Atlantic ocean, in a swampy bay area.

Two Injured In Rose Point Crash

Two Youngstown men suffered injuries, when an auto driven by George Jones, aged 36 years, of 2626 Alban street, Youngstown, O., went off the road on a curve near Rose Point, about 4 o'clock this morning. Jones lost control of the car, it is stated.

Jones suffered lacerations of the scalp, nose, and a contusion of the left shoulder. He was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital, along with Roy C. Willis, aged 37 years, of 63 West Warren avenue, Youngstown, who suffered a fracture of the right collar bone, contusions and abrasions of the right knee and shin, and lacerations of the left ankle.

Defense Pact Is Being Discussed

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Premiers and defense ministers of Norway, Sweden and Denmark met in Copenhagen today to discuss their projected Scandinavian defense pact.

Danish Premier Hans Hedtoft addressed the three-nation assemblage in the Common room of the Danish parliament.

Chief problem confronting the three powers will be the degree to which their alliance will be linked to the North Atlantic Security Pact.

Sweden has affirmed its desire to remain neutral, and make no commitments to the west. Norway and Denmark are reported to favor a tie with the five-power eastern European union and the U. S. and Canada.

An important factor in determining the Scandinavian decision will be their ability to purchase arms from the western powers, especially the United States.

Fear Chinese In Philippines May Become Reds

TOKYO, Jan. 22.—(INS)—The Philippines government faced the dangerous possibility today that perhaps half a million Chinese residents of the islands might switch their loyalties to the Communists.

Philippine officials voiced such a fear when this correspondent made a trip to Manila earlier in the week.

Acting Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs Felino Neri told International News Service that the Chinese in the islands might be forced to swing their loyalties to the Reds unless Chiang Kai-Shek gives them something to cling to in the form of an "exile" government.

There are roughly about ten million Chinese living in southeast Asiatic areas in the same position created by the crisis in China, where the nominal government virtually has crumbled away.

The Philippines fear, as do other southeast Asiatic countries, that the Communists will infiltrate from China.

Truman Completes Inaugural Week Round Of Events

Small Private Luncheon Today Winds Up Gala Social Program

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(INS)—President Truman completed the round of social events for his gala inaugural week today by attending a small private luncheon.

The president, Mrs. Truman, daughter Margaret and their house guests attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Perle Mesta, prominent Democratic party woman's leader. Mr. Truman was up at 6:30 a.m., after sleeping an hour later than usual. He went to bed at 12:30 o'clock last night.

He was at his office in the White House early, and spent the morning working on official papers.

Mr. Truman had two callers during the morning. One was Gov. Forrest Smith, of Missouri. The other was Victor Householder, of Phoenix, Ariz., a member of the President's World War I field artillery battery.

Smith visited the White House to tell the President goodbye before returning to Missouri. He was in the President's office only a few moments for a farewell handshake.

Mr. Truman left his office at 12:15 p.m. and walked across the street to Blair house to leave for the private luncheon at the Mesta residence.

The White House said the President had no plans for the week end and that "things should get back to normal by Monday."

Meanwhile, telegrams congratulating the President on his inaugural address continued to pour into the White House. They totaled over 700 this morning.

WHEN YOU HOLD A PARTY YOU EXPECT YOUR FRIENDS
There wouldn't be much fun if you held a party and your friends didn't come. And we are expecting our friends (which includes you) at our annual Ladies' Night dinner in the Cathedral, Saturday, February 19.
Our Ladies' Night dinners have become traditional in New Castle. A good meal, a high grade speaker and a big time floor show. This year we have the former mayor of Baltimore, Md., Theodore R. McKeldin as the speaker. Jim Wheeler, the general chairman, says the floor show will be "just fifty-five minutes of Broadway."
There might be a pleasanter way of spending Saturday night, February 19, but off-hand we can't think what it would be. Better get your tickets now before the allotment is gone.

Sailors And Marines To Learn How To Survive In Arctic's Deadly Cold

ABOARD USS MOUNT MCKINLEY, En Route To Kodiak Island, Alaska, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Sailors and Marines steamed northward by the thousands today to learn from Uncle Sam what the Russians learned long ago—how to fight and survive in the Arctic's deadly cold.

They headed into the frigid north for a mock invasion of bleak and forbidding Kodiak Island, one of the stormiest and coldest areas in the world.

The "attack" will be staged by 2,000 Marines and 16,000 Navy men aboard a task force of more than 30 ships.

The enemy will be what it always has been to every creature, man or beast, that lives in that storm-battered section of the globe—the bitter, unremitting elements.

Island "defenses" that will have to be overcome are the dread Williwaw, 120-mile-an-hour winds that explode with a sudden fury, water so cold that a man can live in it for only five or six minutes, ice on plane wings, snow and slush.

It is precisely to learn to cope with such "defenses" that the task force was organized.

Need Experience
Rear Admiral Peter K. Fischer, commander of Amphibious Group One, of which the Mount McKinley is the command ship, said: "The Navy has learned to fight, and fight well, in almost every other climate in the world. But we have not had occasion to gain much experience in the extremely nasty conditions prevalent in the Alaskan sector in wintertime."

Alaska is a part of the United States and the Navy should be prepared to fight in any part of the country.

The operation will put all sorts of new equipment from clothing to weapons to a war-conditions test.

Particular emphasis is being placed on the landing of the Marine Force to make on the island. Most of the Marines, incidentally, are youngsters, 18 to 28, who have never been in extremely cold country before.

It is hoped to put them ashore without their even getting wet in the chilling water. To this end men over a vast area, at shore stations and on weather ships far out at sea, are working on weather charts. From these the best time for the landing, in relation to the surf and the wind, will be worked out.

Eleventh Hour For Income Taxpayers Earlier This Year

Local Income Tax Office To Close Promptly At 5 P.M. March 15

Although the main office for the Western Pennsylvania District Collector of Internal Revenue, in the Post Office Building in Pittsburgh, will be open until midnight, for receiving payments and returns, the local office will close promptly at 5 p. m. on March 15, the last day for payment of 1948 taxes, Division Chief G. A. Funkhouser stated here today.

It had been stated erroneously in a previous article that the local Division Office would be open until midnight, also.

Assistance to taxpayers here will be given daily except Saturday at the Division Office, Second floor, Post Office Building, in the filing of their returns. Mr. Funkhouser stated. Already, a great number of taxpayers have completed this annual obligation.

Many however, have not as yet received their withholding statement, Form W-2, from their employer. This form W-2 for the year 1948 must be given to employees not later than January 31, 1949.

Suspect Held In Pittsburgh Murder

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Butler, Pa., police were reported today to be holding a man incommunicado for questioning in connection with the slaying last Dec. 10 of 12-year-old Carol Lee Kensington in her Bruston district home in Pittsburgh.

The unidentified man was being held on a suspicious person charge, according to Butler Police Chief C. J. Miller, who said he would be questioned sometime today.

Miller said the man answers the description of the person wanted in connection with the Kensington slaying but added that he had not been investigated yet.

Lawrence Tibbett Is Accorded Honor

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Lawrence Tibbett was honored on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House last night in ceremonies commemorating his 25 year as a member of the Metropolitan Opera Co.

The baritone received gifts from the management, chorus, ballet members and his fellow artists after he sang the role of Capt. Balstrode in Benjamin Britten's opera, "Peter Grimes."

A resolution passed by the musical advisory committee of the National Arts Foundation hailed Tibbett as "the first singing actor to be a sensational success in opera, radio, movies, concerts and recordings."

'Last Date' Hunted In Woman Slaying

Young Divorcee Found Shot To Death In Home In Union City, N. J.

(INS)—Union City police today hunted the "last date" of pretty blonde Mrs. Mildred Spiegel Carl, found shot to death in her bed last night, clad only in panties and a brassiere.

The 26-year-old divorcee's body was discovered in her apartment after an unidentified man telephoned the police, reported the slaying, and then quickly hung up.

Mrs. Carl, who had worked recently as a waitress, was dead about an hour when police arrived to find her body covered up carefully by blankets which also hid blood-soaked sheets and a pillow.

The apartment was in disorder; but police said there was no evidence of a struggle. A half-filled whiskey bottle, two glasses, and the dregs of two drinks were on the table.

Police Lieut. George Miller said that a man called the station after 7 p. m. and said:

"I'd better send police to 1605 Summit Ave. A woman is dead there in bed."

Miller said he asked how the caller knew the woman was dead, and the man replied:

"Why, she's been shot. I had a date with her and when I rang the bell and got no answer I just walked in."

The apartment door was bolted when police arrived. They surmised that the "last date" had snapped the lock as he fled.

Three Are Killed In Plane Crash; Two Others Hurt

GREAT FALLS, Mont., Jan. 22.—(INS)—Great Falls Air Force base officials launched an investigation today into the crash of a B-29 plane five miles west of Great Falls in which three fliers were killed.

Two others of the crew of 12 were not given much chance to live.

The USAF withheld names of the occupants of the Superfortress, which plunged into a hillside wheatfield last night while en route from Smoky Hills Air Force base at Salinas, Kan., to Spokane, Wash. It was attached to the 15th Air Force base at Spokane.

A survivor made his way five miles to the Great Falls Air Force base to report the crash.

The plane did not catch fire.

REPORT 60 ARRESTED
PRAGUE, Jan. 22.—(INS)—The Czechoslovak government announced today that 60 persons allegedly involved in an espionage ring working for "American interests" have been arrested in Bratislava.

The persons arrested were described as "enemy servants of American intelligence."

The official statement said that police found microfilms, a radio transmitter, and documentary evidence showing that the group sent couriers from Slovakia to Austria, where military, political and economic information was sold to the U. S. Intelligence.

BLOOD DONORS TO BE SUPPLIED

Civic And Social Organizations Plan To Supply Specific Number

Many of our civic, and social organizations in Lawrence County will supply a specific number of blood donors at the request of the local Red Cross chapter's blood program committee. It is announced by Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, chairman of the committee. This aid in blood donor recruitment was hailed as a forward step in solving problems connected with supplying human blood for transfusions at any Lawrence County hospital.

Typing of members, who will donate on a regularly scheduled basis, will begin in the near future and the organization's representative will be called upon directly by the Lawrence County Red Cross chapter to donate the blood at the request of physicians.

The plan set up by the organizations and the Red Cross is an effort to supply a sufficient number of donors for specific cases. Red Cross officials emphasized, however, that the need for donors who were not connected with any of the organizations would still exist. "We can only conduct a successful program when all of our citizens realize the importance of donating blood," Dr. Flannery pointed out. "Our blood program is a community opportunity to solve a pressing problem and as such becomes a decided community responsibility."

It was brought out that costs for human blood obtained through established professional blood banks in many cities were prohibitive to many families. In addition it is frequently difficult to obtain certain rare types of blood professionally. The Red Cross plan includes the typing of all donors before they give blood and thus when a call comes in for a rare type it will be readily available. Donors are urged to register at the Chapter House, 39 North Beaver street, any weekday morning between 10 and 12 noon or between 3 and 5 in the afternoon.

Shenango St. YMCA Membership Drive Kick-Off Sunday

J. Preston Flaherty Is Principal Speaker At Afternoon Meeting Of Volunteer Workers

Shenango St. Branch YMCA will begin its annual membership drive with a kick-off meeting Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The membership committee has announced that J. Preston Flaherty of the Johnson Bronze Co. will deliver a short talk to the group of volunteer workers and friends of the branch who attend the Sunday meeting.

The people of the community served by the branch appreciate the support given them by the Community Chest and other friends. Now they want to prove that they themselves are willing to do their part financially to support the branch and its program.

Goal Is 350
This year's goal is 350 members. If it is attained, the branch can not only continue to serve its members and the community by offering camping, trips, forums, and movies but also add to this list of activities and provide better equipment to do them.

Prospect cards have already been placed in the hands of the captains and the committee is hoping for a preliminary report at the Sunday afternoon meeting.

Captains and instructors will be given their final instructions Sunday and any one interested in the branch and its program is invited to attend.

The drive is scheduled to last four weeks, but there is hope that the goal will be reached before that time.

Protest Liquor License Permit Near To Church

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Five Millvale district churches today protested issuance of a liquor license to a hotel within 285 feet of the First Methodist church in Millvale.

The Rev. Joseph M. Somers of the First Methodist church complained to the state liquor control board that the law would be violated if the hotel was permitted to serve liquor within 300 feet of a church.

The license was granted to Earl Oesterling and David Nixon. Oesterling is Republican chairman of the borough.

Charles C. McGovern and board chairman Frederick T. Gelder approved the application during the absence of the third member of the board, Frank D. Armstrong, who reportedly stated he intended to question the application when it was made two months ago.

Indications were that the license would stand, however, despite the protest. Armstrong said Friday "it was finished business."

Chairman Gelder declared no protest was received at the time of approval, which Rev. Somers denies.

PRISONER FLEES
—Pittsburgh police were looking for a man today who fled the prisoners cage in Allegheny county detective headquarters.

He was arrested Friday, police said, for running up a telephone bill calling Canada on a pay telephone using quarter-size slugs.

He was identified as Lawrence Haywood, 44 of the Hotel Sheraton in Pittsburgh, but police said they found several other identifications when they searched his suitcase.

The suspect escaped by forcing a sliding door in detective headquarters.

Striking Camden Gas Workers Will Return To Work

CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 22.—(INS)—Striking Camden Gas Company workers agreed today to end a three-day walkout which had threatened severe hardships for 100,000 consumers.

A four-point agreement was reached this morning after 19 hours of continuous negotiations between representatives of the Public Service Gas & Electric Co., the union and state and federal mediators. The conferees agreed that the 450 strikers should return to work immediately at the two plants of the utility.

Spokesmen for the Camden Coke and Gas Workers Independent Union specified, however, that supervisory employees maintaining emergency service to homes and hospitals must be called off the job at once.

The company and union also agreed to begin negotiations on a contract to cover the period from July 1, 1948 to June 30, 1949. Union officials had warned that unless the strike was settled quickly, gas supplies for the whole Camden metropolitan area might be exhausted by tonight.

Pollsters Oversold Their Product Is Dr. Tukey's Opinion

HARRISBURG, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Take it from Dr. John W. Tukey, mathematician and sampling expert from Princeton University that the Gallup poll failure in November was no reflection on "scientific sampling."

The question of taking sample polls came up during the $25,000, 000 a year Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Company rate hearing before the Public Utility Commission. "The pollsters, Gallup and Crosby and so on, oversold their product," Tukey asserted. "Their error was actually not as great as in 1936, he declared. "But their error was in the direction which upset predictions which gave it such an effect on the public," he said.

"Sampling—the selection of the persons to be interviewed—is only part of the problem of forecasting a presidential election, which includes an effort to predict from their words on one day how people are going to act on a later day," Tukey explained.

Fireman Points Out Fire Hazard

In the name of fire prevention and personal safety, the above photo should be a perfect lesson. A city fireman is pointing to bricks in the chimney of a home on the South Side, where the bricks separating caused the walls to catch fire. Below the fireman's hand is an old flue that had not been taken out and yet was papered over. Chimneys in old homes should be thoroughly checked before a fire is built in stoves and furnaces. Only Lady Luck prevented complete loss of the house in the above photo.

Senator Lodge Declares Dewey Hurt Own Chances

Failed To Campaign On Republican Party Platform Says Lodge

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Jan. 22.—(INS)—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., (R-Mass.), said today that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey hurt his chances of becoming president "very much" by not campaigning on the Republican party platform.

Senator Lodge declared in a statement to the New Bedford Standard-Times the Republican candidate "did not run on the platform."

"I believe that if the platform had been presented to the people, it would have helped the Republican cause very much," Lodge said.

Lodge was chairman of the committee which formulated the GOP platform. The statement to the newspaper was prompted by an editorial in the Standard-Times titled "Lodge, The Liberal."

Lodge disclaimed any desire to be known as a "Liberal." He referred to the recent attempt by 14 GOP senators to unseat Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio as chairman of the Republican Policy committee. Lodge was chosen Boy Five, Kills Sister With Gun At Steelton, Pa.

STEELTON, Pa., Jan. 22.—(INS)—Police today began an investigation of the shooting of two-year-old Patricia Ann Slade, of Steelton, who was wounded fatally by a gunshot blast fired by her five-year-old brother.

The child died last night in Harrisburg hospital 30 minutes after she was admitted.

Police said the shooting occurred while the children's mother, Mrs. George Slade, was shopping.

The brother, Geary, told police he shot his sister accidentally. Police said the youngster told them he obtained shotgun shells from a bureau drawer and placed one of them in a gun which was leaning

Predicts Collapse

For AAFC In Fall

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(INS)—Sports broadcaster Harry Wismer predicted today that the All-America Football Conference will "collapse".

Wisner, who is director of sports for the American Broadcasting System, declared that Cleveland and San Francisco will desert the AAC and join the National Football league this fall.

He said the "jumping" of the two most powerful clubs in the AAC will mean the end of the conference.

Wisner predicted that the Browns will open their NFL season against the National league champion Philadelphia Eagles at Cleveland.

PRO GRIDDERS CAN SIGN 32 PLAYERS

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—(INS)—National Football League club will operate with only 32 players each next season, instead of the former total of 35.

This economy-minded move was the highlight of action taken yesterday at the annual winter meeting of the N.F.L.

Other notable action:

1. The free substitution rule will prevail on a trial basis in 1949.
2. Individual-game guarantees for visiting clubs are upped from $15,000 to $20,000, with option of 40 per cent of the net gate.
3. Clubs may televise home games at their own discretion.

New Castle Wins First Section 3 Game, Down Farrell 43 To 37

Don Reed Stars With 19 Points

Sparked by the brilliant young center, Don Reed, leading point-maker in Section Three, New Castle High basketball team ended its losing ways in sectional play, with a 43 to 37 triumph over Farrell, last night at the Washington Junior High gym.

Reed had 19 points, to run his total in five sectional battles to 82. The youngster staged a sensational foul-shooting mark of 11 out of 13. New Castle made 21 fouls out of 31 chances, and were outscored from the field 14 to 11. Farrell was miserable at the foul line making but 9 out of 23 tries.

Win In Fourth Period
New Castle led the first period 10 to 9, trailed at the halfway mark 18 to 17, and again at the end of the third period, 35 to 28. It was a great last period drive that pulled New Castle ahead, with Reed accounting for six points.

It was an exciting finish as New Castle tied the score at 35-35 early in the final session and again at 37 to 37. Farrell got but two points the last period through the tight New Castle defense.

Keep Plugging Away
New Castle was determined last night. They kept plugging away all night. Coach George "Gig" Thomas had a good combination on the floor at the end of the game—Dick Lewis and Tom Clarke at the forwards, Reed at center and Phil Conti and Ben Haines at the guards. This is the tallest five boys Thomas has.

Picciullo got chased in the third period on five fouls. Tony Claella out for a week with a dislocated bone in his foot, returned to the wars last night and played his usual fine defensive game.

New Castle really won the game at the foul line as can be seen. Had Farrell made at least half of their fouls it might have been different. Farrell lost Williams a sub on five fouls in the final period, and Juback a starting forward.

Delise Leads Farrell
Joey Delise was the only Farrell player able to solve the New Castle defense effectively and had seven field goals. He is one of the leading scorers in the section.

Farrell had the lead from the middle of the second period, until Clarke tied it up at 35-35 in the early stages of the final stanza. The score was tied up five times in the battle—9-9, 11-11, 15-15, 35-35 and 37-37.

New Castle will play at Ellwood City Tuesday and will not be home again until February 4th with Beaver Falls playing here. New Castle won the preliminary game.

Donkey Olympics To Lure Kiddies

Big Lions Club Spectacle At Arena Next Wednesday Will Cause Children To Howl

New Castle children by the hundreds will wind their way to the Arena, on Grove street, next Wednesday night for the Lions club big donkey olympic show. The show starts at 7:57.

There is nothing better for the kiddies than a good laugh, and there will certainly be plenty to laugh at as the big two-hour spectacle of grown men riding donkeys and playing games is unfolded.

Members of the New Castle Lions club and the Little Beaver Lions club will do the riding (and falling off.) There will be a basketball game, a tug-of-war, an archery contest, a polo game and a Lady Godiva act, among others. There will be clowns, Indians and blackface comedians.

General Chairman Richard I. Davis, local well known city councilman and safety director, feels that the Lions club is bringing the funniest show possible to New Castle.

Tickets are now on sale for $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and children. Tickets the night of the show for adults will be $1.25. Miss Minnie B. Riley of Kansas City is busy engaged in putting the show together. It will be the finest attraction ever brought to this city.

Princeton Smothered At Union Floor, Pilshaw Stars On Rebound Work

Big Ed Nevotte, the Union High star center, played the best game of his career last night as the Union Scotties swamped Princeton 69 to 26, with Nevotte having 29 points. The big boy simply couldn't miss.

Nevotte had 12 field goals and five fouls. Macko with 14 was runner-up in scoring for Union. Jones led the Princeton team with 11.

Johnny Pilshaw again played a whale of a rebound game for Union and had six of the points. Union led at the first period 24 to 6, and at the half 31 to 12. The Coach Charles James team played a tight defensive game all the way. It was the third win of the year for Union in Section 23 against three reverses.

Branch Rickey Thinks Dodgers Can Win Flag
and commission. And in pro football, Buck Rickie rode the Dodgers into the red ink up to their hips.

On the subject of baseball, however, Rickey slid easily into his usual polyan routine. He reminded his listeners that Brooklyn has a flock of sensational rookies coming up, and labeled the 1949 Dodgers as prospectively "the best team to presently Brooklyn since I came here."

Sees Pennant Winner
The Mahatma added that he will be sadly disappointed if the Brooks do not win the National League pennant this year. The only thing he is worried about is his outfield.

Rickey points out that the 1949 Brooklyn team, although extremely youthful, will be much more seasoned than last year's aggregation. He argues that most of the 1949 regulars will have one more year of experience to their credit, and therefore he looks for considerable improvement.

Fritzie Zivic Had Varied Ring Career

By KEN OPSTEIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

ATLANTA, Jan. 22.—Eight years ago Fritzie Zivic was the welter-weight boxing champion of the world.

The rugged war horse of Pittsburgh's fighting Zivics won the crown when he whipped Henry Armstrong in a vicious 15-round match.

Fritzie had finally reached the top after 12 long years. He had fought everyone and fought everywhere. His record showed nearly 400 matches.

Fight The Best
Zivic had boxed guys named Joe in stuffy little arenas from coast to coast, and he had stood toe-to-toe with men like the late Lou Ambers, Sammy Angott and Beau Jack under the bright lights of Madison Square Garden.

Sports page headlines hailed the steel man from the steel town. Those once precious dollars that were earned by a young, battered and bloody body in a small hamlet were now plentiful.

Lost To Cochrane
Then, on July 29, 1941, Zivic stepped into the ring and lost his title to Red Cochrane. Fritzie says: "It was one of my poorest fights. It was just one of those nights when I wasn't right."

All athletes have those nights, nights when nothing seems to go right. When the athlete is about 30 years old, however, perhaps it's not just one of those nights.

Zivic suffered several other beatings after he lost to Cochrane, and those who praised him as the champion then said he was through. But Fritzie protested:

Only a year ago Zivic had been champion. He retired, however, after several more losses. Then, he announced a comeback!

Finally Convincing
A few victories over a few nobodies were encouraging enough to make him think that perhaps all he had needed was a rest and that he was nearly as good as ever. But soon came a bad defeat from a fighter that a younger Zivic would have knocked out.

He retired again and came back once more a few extra dollars would come in handy.

Zivic is the father of three children. He has been fighting for 20 years.

Murtaugh Joins Rojek Demanding Bigger Salaries
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates' "cast-off" second base combination of Stan Rojek and Danny Murtaugh today pulled another neat "double play" which probably will cost the Buc management several thousand dollars.

Rojek and Murtaugh, who landed with Pirates last year strictly from hunger and became one of the best combinations in the National league, are holding out for more money in 1949.

Both of them claim "holding out" isn't the right term, but that's what it amounts to.

Murtaugh Joins In
Rojek, who made $11,000 last season, was offered $15,000 by General Manager Roy Hamey. From his North Tonawanda, N. Y., home, the shortstop countered with a request for $18,000.

Murtaugh joined his infield mate, although the terms he's dickering for weren't specified. From Chester, Pa., Murtaugh said: "I feel I'm worth more to the club. Pirate officials and fans have been so good to me, though, that I feel the matter can be adjusted in short order."

There wasn't a fan in Pittsburgh who thought Rojek and Murtaugh aren't worth more. The management wasn't commenting.

SKKEET AND TRAP SHOOT SUNDAY
There will be a skeet and trap shoot at the Lawrence County Sportsman farm range at the Harbor Sunday, 2 to 6, it was announced today by Herman Steinbrink, president.

The only team in the National Football League annually to play Thanksgiving Day games is the Detroit Lions and commission. And in pro football, Buck Rickie rode the Dodgers into the red ink up to their hips.

Branch Rickey Thinks Dodgers Can Win Flag

On the subject of baseball, however, Rickey slid easily into his usual polyan routine. He reminded his listeners that Brooklyn has a flock of sensational rookies coming up, and labeled the 1949 Dodgers as prospectively "the best team to presently Brooklyn since I came here."

Sees Pennant Winner
The Mahatma added that he will be sadly disappointed if the Brooks do not win the National League pennant this year. The only thing he is worried about is his outfield.

Rickey points out that the 1949 Brooklyn team, although extremely youthful, will be much more seasoned than last year's aggregation. He argues that most of the 1949 regulars will have one more year of experience to their credit, and therefore he looks for considerable improvement.

Jack Counts On His Experience

Believes It Will Outweigh Higgins' Youth; Bearcat Jones To Box Poza

Forty eight hours from tonight, Jack Biddle, the glove-trotting middleweight of this city, will attempt to prove that youth is not always served. The veteran, who is in good condition, believes his experience, garnered from 327 bouts will prove too much for Higgins, who is Jack's junior by quite a number of years.

Biddle went for a five-mile spin on the road this morning, and early this afternoon boxed six rounds, pulled the weights, jumped rope, hit both large and small bags then, after a shower, called it a day.

"I'll do no boxing Sunday. I'll confine my training to light 'work'. I am at weight, feel good and despite the fact that Higgins is much younger than me, I expect to 'take him into camp,'" Biddle said.

Higgins is also reported to be in fine fettle. So far he has had a good run of success. Coming from the amateurs, he has cut a clean swath among some pros, two of his knockout victims being Mike Berksworth and Larry Huff.

Pozza vs Jones
The Higgins vs Biddle eight-round embroglio will be the main event of a five-battle docket at 8:30 p. m. Monday in the Arena, Grove street.

Billy Pozza, Ellwood City sociologist who has knocked out almost all his opponents, will take on Bearcat Jones, Pittsburgh. The Bearcat is reported to own experience and to have fought several nationally known heavyweights.

Bill Bradley and Johnny Izzo will provide the local color. Izzo defeated Bradley in their first fight. Since upturning pro' Bradley has won 10 of 16 fights. There should be plenty of action in this fight. They weigh 160.

Russ Baxter will attempt a comeback against Duke Peaks, of Youngstown, at 165, and Kenny Rose of Beaver Falls will battle Ray Miller, of Meadville. These two latter matches will be four, and the others, excepting the main go, six rounds.

Seven Clubs Comprise AAFC
By CHARLES EINSTEIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—The All American Football Conference announced Friday it will operate as a seven-team league in 1949 with the combination of its Brooklyn and New York teams.

This team will play in Yankee Stadium.

A long-awaited statement from the conference said further that the new Chicago franchise has been approved. It possesses financing and player strength greatly improved over past years.

The club owners added that much of the Chicago team's player strength will come from players now under contract to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Peace Goes Out
Thus, peace with the National Football League was tossed out the window.

Meanwhile, an official announcement by the National Football League that the transfer of the Boston Yanks to the Polo Grounds in New York has been ratified—with a ten-year contract—was expected momentarily.

Mounties Overcome Eagles Half-time Lead To Annex Fifth Win In High Scoring Contest

Mt. Jackson's Mounties, recovering from a defeat at the hands of Wampum Tuesday night, really turned it on the East Brook Eagles last night at East Brook and won a high scoring league game, 75 to 58.

Coach Fern Webster's ace forwards, Pat Kerr and Bill Emery, combined to score 52 points for the visitors with a demonstration of accurate shooting seldom seen in county loop play.

The Eagles trailed by six points at the quarter but netted 25 points in the second period and led 35 to 33 at the half. The Mounties, however, came back in the third period with 24 markers to take the lead and drove on to the impressive win.

Bud Mayberry and Ralph Manzo gave a very good account of themselves in the Eagles' lineup and connected for 31 points between them.

Mt. Jackson won the reserve game, 21 to 16.

Aliquippa Trips Ellwood 71 To 36

Indians Take Fifth Straight League Win; Frank And Zernich Top Scorers

(Special To The News)
ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Jan. 22.—Aliquippa Hi Indians, Section 3 league leaders, smothered Ellwood Wolverines here last night, 71 to 36, for their fifth straight loop win.

The Indians outscored the visitors in every period of the rough contest that saw 52 personal fouls called.

Jimmy Frank hit the hoops for 15 points and Zernich supplied 11 more as the "Quips" well-balanced attack almost doubled the score on the Blue and White cagers. Don Murdic and Dom Suppa, a pair of substitute guards playing because of illness to Soos and Conely and personal fouls on the starting sentinels, split 20 markers for the Wolverines.

Ellwood, who has been beaten only once on its home floor this year and has captured two
